TOWNSEND

Center. At the M. E. church on Sunday morning Dr. Charlton's subject will be "Townsend epic," the second in his series on Townsend poetry. Union evening services.

At the Congregational church Rev. A. L. Struthers' sermon topic is "Safety first." On Friday, October 2, the Missionary society will meet with the president, Miss Ellen Haynes, at the home of Mrs. Emma Davis.

G. Paul Smith, of New York, is enjoying a visit and rest with his friend, Albert G. Seaver, at his home on Brookline street.

Miss Arlene Clark returned from Maine to her home here on Thursday evening.

The second moving picture in the series of "The creation," will be shown on Sunday evening at 7:45 in Memorial hall, and will include events in Moses' life down through bible history until the entrance of the Israelites into Canaan under Joshua. The colored stereopticon slides introduced between the films are reproductions of some of the most famous paintings in the world. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Birthday club will meet in the vestries of the Congregational church on Thursday afternoon, October 7. Roll call, quotations from James Whitcomb Riley. Hostesses, Mrs. Lena Blood, Mrs. Anna F. Ellis, Mrs. Rebecca McKenzie, Mrs. Clara Craig. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, from Somerville, are enjoying a visit in town with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Miller.

Church Home Day. A large gathering was present at the church home day and roll call of the Congregational church held on the beautiful autumnal day, Thursday.

The business of the day was held during the morning session when the following officers and committees were elected to serve during the ensuing year: Mrs. Angie H. Lang, clerk; Julian W. Eastman, treasurer; Asa K. Tyler, deacon 4 year; Dea. Albert S. Howard, Leander C. Jeffs, trustees; Sunday school; superintendents—Mrs. Abbie A. Barber, Sunday school, E. Alonzo Blood, ass't.; Mrs. William Russell, primary dept.; Mrs. Aldie Wallace, junior dept.; Mrs. Lydia Jeffs, home dept.; Sunday school librarian, secretary and treasurer, and secretary of the home department vacancies to be filled by the executive committee at a later date; Dea. A. K. Tyler, Dea. Albert S. Howard, Dea. William A. Russell, George Davis, Arthur Carliland, Harold Parker, Ralph Bush and T. J. Harvey, ushers and collectors; committees—Dea. George L. Whitcomb, Henry B. Hildreth, T. J. Harvey, pew; Mr. and Mrs. E. Alonzo Blood, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harvey, Mrs. George L. Whitcomb and Mrs. George Gates, parsonage; Dea. George L. Whitcomb, Mrs. Arthur Carliland and Henry J. Miller, delegates to fall association of churches in Ashby; Charles T. Haynes, delegate to American Missionary association and American Board at New Haven; Mr. and Mrs. E. Alonzo Blood, Mrs. George Gates and Mrs. Alice Powell, church home day committee for 1915.

A most excellent dinner in charge of the committee of the day, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Russell, Mrs. Fannie Meade and William Copeland, was served in the vestries at noon to the children and young people of the church, church members and friends. At the roll call at two o'clock members responded to their names by voice and letters, showing that they had not forgotten the home church. Mrs. Winifred Flagg Symonds, of Tyngsboro, sang very sweetly a beautiful selection in response to her name which touched a tender chord of sympathy in the hearts of the audience. Mrs. C. J. Ross, of West Townsend, kindly rendered a special vocal solo during the afternoon's exercises. Roll call prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Trowbridge; scriptures read by Rev. Mr. Dunlap of Ashby; and prayers offered by Rev. E. Charlton. The address of the afternoon was delivered by Rev. George H. Guttererson of Boston, who held the interest and attention of his audience on the world's most important subject, "The twentieth century church." His three points of emphasis were that the church and its members should be "a light to the world" and "a city set on a hill." The singing of a hymn by the congregation and benediction by the pastor closed the annual meeting of 1915. The occasion was honored by the presence of six ministers. Besides those already mentioned was Rev. Daniel Adams of Walley, who offered prayer and blessing at dinner. For the fruit sent to the ill and shut-ins so generously and kindly donated by Charles B. Hart, the church gives grateful acknowledgment and appreciation.

T. H. I. S. Fair. The "hill" growing to be an active part of the town in the public eye which might well be imitated by the more populous sections in public spirit and working together for the common good. This section has had built a piece of permanent road under the small town act of the state and has used the schoolhouse as a place for meetings for the discussion of local affairs as well as matters which concern the public at large.

Tuesday a fair was held which was a grand success. The little "hill" college was crowded both afternoon and evening with parties from other parts of the town and from Brookline, N. H., Pepperell, Lynn and a party of summer residents from Baltimore, Md. who gave liberal patronage to the seven tables of fruits, jellies and other products in the farmer's home. The program consisted of an original poem, "The progress of the Townsend Hill Improvement society," Mrs. O. D. Barber, which should have been heard to have been appreciated, which was the feature of the evening, readings by Miss Alberta Barber and Victoria selections by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Ware.

At the close of the evening what few articles remaining were auctioned off by John J. Morse and found a ready sale. The net proceeds of the fair amounted to over fifty dollars. The receipts at the various tables were as follows: Candy $60, fancy $12, aprons $9, mystery $3; while a large sum was realized from the sale of vegetables.

It is by a community of interests and the cultivation of the social life that will aid in solving the much discussed problem of keeping the young people on the farm instead of entering city life with its glamor and its hard competitions.

Death. Mrs. Almira J. Tisdale, aged 78 yrs. 18 days, passed away at her home in town last Saturday morning after a brief illness.

Mrs. Tisdale was born on September 6, 1837, on Townsend hill, completed when quite young by her widowed mother, Mrs. Brooks Adams, to the center to live. She was a graduate of Westfield Normal school and for a number of years was a successful teacher in Loomister and surrounding towns. In 1871, she married Rev. William B. Tisdale, a Methodist minister. She will be tenderly and pleasantly remembered to the postulates where she labored. Mrs. Tisdale was a woman of exceptionally lovable character, known and highly esteemed by a large number of people, and had many friends, especially among the older people, for "none knew her but to love her."

In early life she united with the Townsend orthodox Congregational church and at the time of her death was one of its oldest members, a regular attendant during the greater part of her long residence in town, and greatly interested in the work of the church. Her faithful presence at the Sabbath and Sunday school services will be sadly missed.

The deceased leaves two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hildreth, whom she will be especially missed, as they were spending their declining years together, and a younger sister, Mrs. Sara Howard, of Waterdown. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock from her late home. Her pastor, Rev. A. L. Struthers, officiated. Miss Estelle Farr sang "I and kindly light" and "beautiful Isle of somewhere." The bearers were Charles Spaulding, Perry Howard, Arthur Eastman and T. J. Harvey. Interment was in the family lot at the center cemetery.

Harbor Items. Harry Tamlyn spent Thursday at the Rockingham fair.

Miss Melora Warner entered upon her duties as teacher at the Trades school in Worcester on Monday.

Mrs. Strout, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Reed, is visiting her daughter and grandson in Needham Four generations are represented.

The Ladies' Aid resumes its work on Thursday, October 7. A full meeting is earnestly requested and new members will be heartily welcomed. Hereafter the meetings will be held on the first and third Thursdays of every month.

The Monday club had an enjoyable meeting at Sachem villa, Mrs. Charles Noyes, hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dustin have moved into the Moses French house. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Doherty in company with Mr. and Mrs. James Christian of Pepperell, spent Wednesday at the Rockingham fair. They report everything on a bigger scale than usual.

Frank Christian is moving into the James Eastman house, which has been leased for a term of years. George Gilchrist will move into the Babcock house, which he recently purchased in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Hyron Laws and family have moved into the "old hotel." Mrs. Henry Spaulding is spending the week at the Center with Mrs. Lucy Lawrence.

Mrs. Chase, of Townsend Center, is a guest of Mrs. Harry Dustin. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jesselyn motored to Salem on Thursday to attend the Rockingham fair.

WESTFORD

Center. Rev. and Mrs. Louis H. Buckshorn and little son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hildreth during their recent stay in town. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Reed, are enjoying a trip to New York via the Hudson river. Members of the Tadmuck club are again pleasantly reminded of the opening meeting of the season on next Tuesday afternoon at the Unitarian church parlors at 2.30. There will be the opening address by the president and also music and some interesting vacation notes by several of the members. The afternoon will be a social tea and the afternoon is planned as a pleasant reunion of the members after the vacation season. The club calendar will be distributed at this meeting.

Miss Lillibridge, parish assistant in the Unitarian churches of the North Middlesex Conference, is in Westford for a limited length of time. It is hoped that by practical suggestions, earnest effort and co-operation much may be accomplished during her stay. Miss Lillibridge will be glad to learn of any children unable to attend Sunday school because of illness and any not attending any Sunday school. She is with Mrs. A. M. Richardson.

The Pollock farm folks are busy picking strawberries yet at their residential estate on the old Spring road. Winter wheat is being distributed liberally on the soil of the Stone Brook farms for future elevator use. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pickup, of Brookside, have another infant offspring.

On last Saturday evening a very enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kelley, given in honor of Miss Mary Kelley. About thirty young people were present and the occasion will be remembered for a long time to come. A beautiful cross of jet, inlaid with sapphires, was presented to Miss Kelley by Miss Sarah May, Miss Sarah Graham, of Canton, made the presentation speech. Supper was served at 7.50 o'clock after which games and music were enjoyed. Among those present from out-of-town were Misses Annie and Sarah Graham and John G. of Canton. Misses Elizabeth Kelley, Annie Cavanaugh and Maria May were the accompanists of the evening.

The engagement is announced of Miss Bertha Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Wilson, of Westford, to Nathaniel Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, of Westford. The wedding will take place in late November. Mrs. James Kelley, Sp. and Miss Sarah May spent last week as guests of friends in Canton.

Harry Nesmith, the warden, and men have been kept busy clearing the roads of broken trees during the high winds of the past week. Many trees have become uprooted, among those being a tree on the Cameron school road and five on the cemetery road towards Granville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone, of Salem, Ill. were in town last Sunday, greeting Westford friends. Mrs. Stone, who is known by her contemporaries as Georgiana Fenton Stone, and whose girlhood home was in Westford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. F. Conant, in Littleton.

Mrs. Julian A. Cameron has been entertaining her mother, Mrs. John W. Abbot, and her sister, Mrs. Kate Keble. The latter's daughter, Mrs. William Winthrop Sargent, and little son and daughter, who have been visiting the home people, return soon to their California home.

Printed on the coupon, and placed in the collection box to be checked up by the collector. At the end of the four months a fitting recognition is made of perfect attendance. On tomorrow afternoon, at four o'clock, comes the quarterly church meeting of the Unitarian First Congregational society. The minister will give the address on "The church—what it is and what it should be." The annual election of officers will be held.

The call for a meeting of all who are interested in music met with a hearty response on Tuesday evening. Various plans for the promotion of musical study were discussed freely and resulted in the chartering of Supt. H. Hill, Mrs. G. W. Prouty and Rev. H. L. Caulkins a committee to canvass the town in the interest of a choral society which shall aim to improve the music in church and town generally. The company favored giving a concert by local talent at the beginning of the season.

The heavy winds this week have played havoc with the trees. Shade trees have suffered much from loss of branches, but the mischief done to the fruit trees has been far greater. Hundreds of barrels of apples were blown off and on account of bruises were rendered less marketable. The orchardists have been extremely busy caring for these windfalls and the apples.

The King's Daughters will hold their regular meeting with Mrs. J. W. Ireland on next Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Osman Needham will have charge of the October birthdays. Mrs. Emma K. Lemley writes from the White Mountains that she is surrounded by snow and ice.

From Washington, D. C. have come pleasant greetings and assurances of a most successful G. A. R. encampment from Mrs. H. P. Works and her mother and J. E. Smith, who are expected home today.

Everett Kelley, of Alston, for several years a resident of Littleton, was in town on Monday calling on old friends. Mr. Kelley left town twenty years ago to accept a position as conductor on the electric in Boston. He has gradually worked toward the front and today holds a good position as chief motorman at Alston, for the superintendency of the Boston divisions. He is a fine example of what a boy of good health, sound morals andperseverance can accomplish for himself, and his friends are watching his progress with much satisfaction and pride.

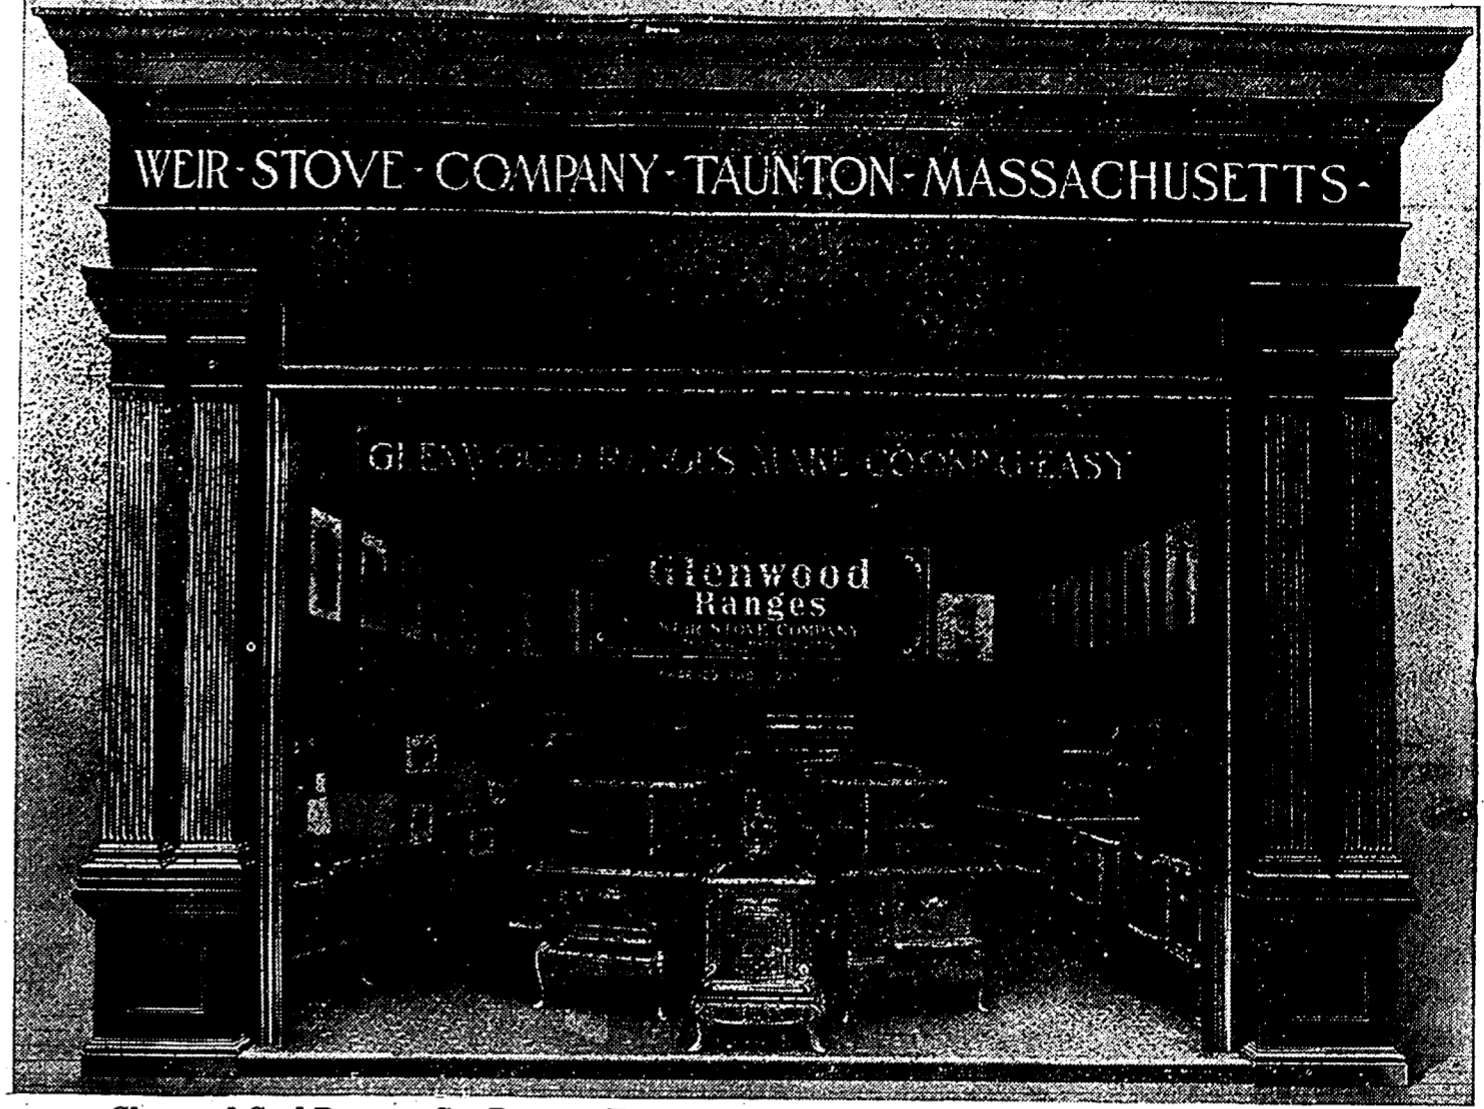

Miss Elinor Whitney of Lexington is visiting at Hon. F. A. Patch's. Miss Jennie Bruce of Somerville is the guest of Mrs. Abbie Tuttle.

Miss Amelia Brown of Medford enjoyed the hospitality of the George H. Kimball's last week. Mrs. Kimball is spending the week-end with friends in Boston and vicinity and her daughter Faith is in care of Mrs. Fred S. Kimball.

Miss Helen Thompson of Laurel, Md., was pleasantly entertained at Miss Laura Brown's last week. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Green Sunday, September 26.

Miss Clara Bussey of Belknap Falls, Vt., is expected next week at L. A. Hager's, where she will make her headquarters for the winter, going frequently to her school at Boston for studies in music. She is welcomed as a valuable social and musical acquisition in town this winter.

Two Gold Medals—Highest Award at The Panama Exposition, 1915

Glenwood Coal Ranges, Gas Ranges, Furnaces and Heaters, awarded Two Gold Medals, at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, Cal., 1915. Glenwood Ranges are the product of New England's largest and best known foundry. They are designed by makers of life-long experience. They weigh more, are put together better and burn less fuel than most ranges. The castings are wonderfully smooth and easy to keep clean. They are handsome, convenient and mechanically right—no modern feature lacking. Smooth cast, Colonial design, plain finish, compact structure, big roomy ovens, easy working grates and countless other features. Owing to their sturdy construction and fine workmanship, they will stand hard usage, do better work and last much longer than the ordinary kind. They certainly do "Make Cooking and Baking Easy". Get one and make housekeeping drudgeless.

Lester H. Carew has one of the Best Hair Dressing Rooms in Ayer. It is large and very neatly furnished with three chairs and is the place to go to when in need of a first-class Barber. Look for his sign on Railroad Row, corner of West Main Street, Ayer.

Rev. David Wallace and several members of the C. E. society attended the first fall meeting of the Lowell C. E. society held in the Baptist church, Lowell, on Monday evening of this week. Leonard Burland was the leader of the C. E. service last Sunday evening. John Wilson, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. Annie Wilson Kimball and Miss J. Florence Wilson, were in attendance at the G. A. R. encampment at Washington, D. C. and after the close of the meetings extend their trip to Ohio to visit Kingpeople.

Perley E. Wright continues his two trucking trips to Boston every night with shipments of apples. The heavy cross pieces supporting the flag pole at the center of the common are being replaced. These supports have badly rotted out. It is only about fifteen years since they were placed. This was at the time the old bandstand was removed and the flag pole was lowered from its height of 100 feet to about 90 feet.

The hard wind storm of last Sunday night did considerable damage to trees, telephone wires, etc. The tree-shaded main streets and lawns of the village were strewn with apples and orchards in exposed places suffered badly. The cold winds blighted vegetation like frost, although as usual Westford hill has escaped the first frosts reported in the Berkshires.

J. Herbert Fletcher and J. Henry Colburn's ice cream parlors which have done a good business during the warm season, discontinue the sale of this frozen delicacy this week.

Mrs. E. P. Robinson, of South Merrimack, N. H., has been spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Perley E. Wright.

Both sides of the votes for women question has now been faithfully presented to Westford. On Friday afternoon two speakers, accompanied by a band, the latter to draw the crowds, spoke before Wright & Fletcher's store, coming by automobile. The speakers were Col. John P. Irish, of California, and Ex-Rtg. John J. Douglass, of Boston, and these speakers used all their most effective arguments why women should not have the vote. A fair-sized crowd was in attendance.

Under the Ayer news last week reference was made to the family of Nathaniel Brown. The writer knew them well as splendid people of the "mind your own business" type, of a well-balanced, solid business and religious development. For several years the writer attended both churches with them in Westford Center. Their farm was the first in town from Forge Village to the Hillside, and bordered on Forge pond, and was not very close to Sandy pond school, as the article of last week referred to. Mr. Brown sold his farm many years ago and moved to the Groton Center, where he died. The buildings have since been burned and others erected in their place.

Among the other contributors from Westford to the Middlesex-North fair in the children's department not previously mentioned, was Miss Precious, of Forge Village, first premium on knit hand kerchiefs. Charley Robey has been appointed sexton of the Unitarian church in place of Edmund T. Baker, resigned. At the next meeting of the Grange, Thursday evening, October 7, some questions left in cold storage for several months will be discussed. "Does the European war indicate that christianity is a failure?" and "Shall Massachusetts have an exposition in 1920 to celebrate the landing of the Pilgrims?"

The 33rd of Masonic rites was recently conferred on Hon. Herbert E. Fletcher, the magnanimous magnate of Oak Hill. Mrs. George Howard writes from Bound Brook, N. J., that they are making airship plans and that the Howard estate adjoins a large aviator field where these airships are made by Sloane & Daniels, the former being a son-in-law of Thomas Case Edson. These airships are equipped with two motors for safety. They are being made for the English Army, the usual rate of speed being about ninety miles an hour.

The anti-suffrage speakers visited here on Tuesday afternoon, but owing to the fact that the mills and shops were running they did not have a very large audience. No speeches were made, but pamphlets were distributed to all while souvenirs were given to the school children.

The local football club are getting ready for the season. A baseball game has already been arranged with a club from North Chelmsford.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE of the Unitarian parish and others interested in their organization will meet in the vestry tomorrow evening at seven o'clock to elect officers and make plans for future meetings. The devotional service will be conducted by one of the younger members, and Mr. Fairchild will give a short reading from the poetry of Eugene Field, who has been called "the poet of childhood."

Tomorrow the Go-to-church bands begin on their winter tour to see how many can make a perfect record for attendance during the next four months. At the Unitarian church the cards may be secured at the door if any have failed to receive them before that time. One coupon is to be detached each Sunday on the date

The flyers giving the list of entertainments for the coming season of the lyceum are ready for distribution and give promise of a most excellent year's course. The members of the committee will sell the tickets to see that all parts of the town are covered, and a ready response on the part of all will make the show brighter and ensure the success of the eighty-sixth year of the lyceum.

The campaigners against woman suffrage met with so little response at the Common and at the Center last Monday that they left without making a speech at either place.

The young people of the Unitarian parish and others interested in their organization will meet in the vestry tomorrow evening at seven o'clock to elect officers and make plans for future meetings. The devotional service will be conducted by one of the younger members, and Mr. Fairchild will give a short reading from the poetry of Eugene Field, who has been called "the poet of childhood."

There will be a social dance held under the auspices of the catholic mission in town hall on Tuesday evening, October 12. Music by Colonial A orchestra of Waltham.

The annual meeting of the Back Log club for the transaction of business will be held in the Unitarian vestry on Thursday evening, October 7, at 7.30 o'clock.

Mrs. William H. Davis has been visiting in Milton. This is the first time in eight years that she has spent a night away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ames, of Somerville, are spending a week with Mrs. A. W. Knowlton.

The entertainment given by Eugene Sweet in town hall last Saturday evening was very clever. His violin selections were those of an accomplished artist and his readings and jokes were appropriate and well received. There was a small but appreciative audience.

The Middlesex Northwest Temperance Union will hold its regular fall meeting in the Baptist church at Ayer, on Thursday, October 7, morning and afternoon, beginning at ten o'clock. Sunday, October 10, will be rally day in the Baptist Sunday school, F. E. Peterson, state secretary, will assist in the exercises.

The King's Daughters' Reception. The annual reception of the King's Daughters held at Mrs. P. L. Brown's, Foster street, last week Friday afternoon, was the leading social affair of early fall. As usual the sun smiled approvingly and the gracious hostess extended the heartiest greetings and hospitality of the home. After a social half hour the president, Mrs. N. H. Whitcomb, in cordial language welcomed the friends and extended congratulations to Mrs. J. Warren Fletcher on the recurrence of her birthday. She announced the program which consisted of several vocal duets by Mrs. Hager and Mrs. Hartwell, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. D. Christie, a solo by Mrs. Hager, and select readings by Miss Ruth Sawyer. The ability of the artists is too well-known to need any comment. The audience thoroughly appreciated both music and readings. In addition to the local artists some of the old-time favorites were heard with pleasure in graphophone selections.

Another brief social and the guests, having mingled their farewells with heartfelt thanks and handshakes returned at sunset to their respective homes. The party consisted of thirty guests and thirty King's Daughters. The oldest man in the company was B. F. Jeffrey, possessor of the Boston Post gold-headed cane, and the oldest woman was Mrs. John D. Warren, who now resides in Boxborough.
