The Women's club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. C. Buckinson on Friday afternoon of last week. The members, numbering nearly forty, were conveyed in automobiles to a beautiful place for enjoying a hot entertainment. After the usual introductory remarks and exercises the entertainment for the evening was Mrs. Richard Poole's, of Fitchburg, gave a fine supper upon "Theater" at the Panama exhibition, which was much enjoyed, particularly so, as Mrs. Poole was in California both before and during the exposition and knew whereof she was speaking, and her descriptions were very fine. At the close of her address refreshments were served of delicious ice cream and cakes.

James Arthur Noon and Raymond W. Noon, sons of Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Noon, came last week for a visit with their parents and brother Oliver, having made a long journey to get here. Arthur has been in the Philippine Islands for several years, engaged in educational work, and expects to return there in October, but will not go alone, as he is to be married during his vacation, and his bride will return with him. Both have governing positions upon which they will enter soon after their arrival there. The best wishes of many friends will go with them to their faraway island home and its duties and pleasures. Raymond, also engaged in educational work, was on account of ill health, obliged to resign his position in a boys' school in India six months ago, and went to the Philippines, where he has been working with his brother, and accompanied him home.

Miss Florence J. Lowe, one of the successful teachers in the school of Lunenburg, expects to leave town in July, when she will take a trip across the continent, combining business with pleasure, visits with friends and sight-seeing, including the San Diego exposition and expects to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on August 9. She has an engagement as director of girls' work in the Palama settlement
