Major Kenneth Hood, in whom many people are interested, writes of his experiences in France, where he was recently sent as inspector of battle grounds. In company with a class of officers, attended by an instructor, he had just returned from a tour including all the principal battlefields and trenches. Proceeding to Brest some of the party were sent back to America. Major Hood, with a few others, were given a ten-day's furlough and made a trip through England and Scotland. At present he is stationed at Tours, France, as disbursing officer, a position similar to that once held by him at Fort Totten, L. I.

Passenger service on the W. N. & P. division of the Boston and Maine railroad, received an additional setback this week by the removal of the 8.20 morning train and the 5.47 afternoon. The express formerly reaching here about 4.30 is to take the place of this latter train from Nashua.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gilbert entertained a party of relatives on Thursday of last week, including his sister, Mrs. Leon Richardson, and husband, from Pavillon, N. Y., his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gilbert, and two sons, Charles and Frank, all from Suncook, N. H., and another brother, Fred Gilbert, and friend, Miss Sawyer, from Boston, making two auto parties to enjoy what might almost be called a family reunion.

Friends in town recently received a letter from Rev. J. B. Lewis, former pastor of the Congregational church. The writer was attending the Congregational conference at the Isles of Shoals at the date of writing. He spoke of seeing the Pepperell papers there, which evidently turned his thoughts this way, and writes that it was pleasant to read them, to know how Pepperell folks were faring. He also speaks of enjoying his new home and church at East Longmeadow. It was a pleasure to hear from him, and how he and his family were faring.

Miss Anna Blood and sister, Miss Margaret, visited their brother, S. Thompson Blood, and family, in Concord Junction, last Saturday.

Miss Mollie Frazer returned Wednesday from Derby, Conn., where she entered a hospital some time since, in training for a nurse. About a month ago she was operated upon there for appendicitis, and now to take an extended vacation at her old home with the Misses Tucker, at Heald's pond, for recuperation, before resuming her work at the hospital which she likes very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Robbins and little Thurlio, returned on Saturday from their vacation week at Hampton Beach. Coming by trolley as far as Lowell they had none of the delays or disadvantages of steam travel. They stopped over at the home of Mrs. Robbins' brother, Mr. Hill, at Billerica, bringing back with them Miss Ada Hill for a visit here.

A sale has been made of the large shoe factory lot on Main street, this week, to E. E. Tarbell. The transfer was made through H. C. Thurston, acting as trustee for the Pepperell Building Co., holders of said property, since the purchase of the factory and lot from the heirs of the Leighton estate, some years ago.

Here's the Style for Summer

It's the waist seam style; it has a different look, a new air to it; just what the young fellows are after this summer.

We have a number of good live ones like this—Hart, Schaffner & Marx make—panel backs, and military backs, but each one distinctive.

They're specially designed for the returning soldiers; but they are the styles you'll all want; well tailored in many interesting new fabrics.

Head-to-Toe Outfitter

The business was in charge of the president, Mrs. M. G. Greene, following the program. The speaker first mentioned was Mrs. Helen Bailey, director for North Middlesex, who gave a valuable talk on general Alliance work. Miss Anna Blood spoke in her usual interesting fashion of the newly Federated church in New York city, where she is occupied several months of the year in teaching. Others attending were Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, who is spending some weeks with relatives in Hollis, N. H., and who was at one time a director of the Alliance in some section. Mrs. May, from Groton, with friends, also motored up with Mrs. Bailey, and Miss Piper, of Cambridge, stopping in town for a part of the summer, attended; also, Miss Clara Gill, from Nashua.

The clearing weather of the afternoon gave an opportunity for the guests to enjoy the pine grove surrounding the barnyard, and also during recess to avail themselves of the chance to visit the new "Gift shop."

Church Services.
The evening services at the Community church will not be held through the month of August.

Rev. Mr. Webster, preaching at the Community church during the six months of his stay at his residence in town, is giving a wonderful series of sermons which are well attended. Last Sunday morning his address was most forceful and inspired, dealing with the unification of the people in this new community church movement, and of how people can cling to essentials in religious belief and abandon some of the minor points. The object of this as well as preceding sermons being to emphasize that all unite on the great fundamentals truths, a course which recommends itself to all broad-minded persons and religious souls.

It has been announced by Mr. Webster that on August 24 it is expected that a number of some of the principal men from the church of his pastorate in Waltham will motor up to attend morning worship at this church. No better proof of the appreciation of the Pepperell people toward Mr. Webster for his efforts in behalf of this church could possibly be given than an attendance to fill the church to its capacity on that date.

On last Sunday morning Rev. Howard A. Bridgman, D. D., editor-in-chief of the Congregationalist and Advance, was present at the morning service with two other gentlemen from Shirley, where Mr. Bridgman is spending the summer months. At the conclusion of the service the congregation was requested to be seated and Mr. Bridgman was asked to address them. His talk showed a knowledge of and intense interest in the church movement as it is being worked out here in Pepperell. Mr. Bridgman spoke most cordially of Mr. Webster, who has been preaching at Trinity chapel in Shirley Center through the summer, and congratulated the people of this newly combined church on the excellent work he had accomplished here, expressing himself that he, as well as many others who were interested in the success of the union of the two church societies, thought the progress of the work remarkable. Mr. Bridgman also commended the general work of federation of churches and spoke particularly of following the earlier efforts of the Pepperell Federation of Churches, when the three churches of the town came together at stated intervals for worship, saying that they were then laying the ground well for this later movement for a Community church which came to pass when the need arose. Mr. Bridgman had the close attention of his audience during the few moments of his address.

Branch Alliance Meeting.
A well attended and very satisfactory meeting of the Branch Alliance was held on Thursday of last week with Mrs. Elizabeth B. Heald at "Pinecroft," notwithstanding the threatening weather of the morning. Twenty-two members and several guests were present by lunch time at one o'clock.

GROTON

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coburn returned from a trip to Lake Winnepesaukee on last week Friday evening, having enjoyed a very pleasant vacation. Mrs. Harry Tolles has gone to the Massachusetts General hospital, Boston, to have the X-ray put on her face in order to discover the cause of the abscesses from which she has suffered.

ing on the Sabine farm through haying, is taking a western trip to Detroit and other places and intends to visit Chicago before his return. Mrs. Frank D. Lewis is spending a few days in Northfield. Misses Annie Kelley and Esther Gillette are at Hampton Beach for two weeks.

Charles A. Duren and his son Warren motored to Groton this week, coming from Concord Junction and calling on old friends. Peaches seem to be plenty in town and are being taken to Lowell and Boston.

The Baptist ladies will hold a food sale this week Saturday afternoon on the lawn in front of the Congregational church. The Baptist ladies are some cooks and prospective purchasers may plan on some choice products of their kitchens.

The Mack Camp Fire Girls, ten in number, with the guard, Miss Ross, break camp this week Friday after a very pleasant two weeks' outing at Bear Hill pond.
