To the DEPOSITORS

Massachusetts Savings Banks

There will appear on the ballot at the State Election a matter affecting Savings Banks.

A referendum vote is to be taken on Chapter 116 of the Acts of 1919. This law, passed by the Legislature without division, permits Savings Banks to PUT DEPOSITS ON INTEREST MONTHLY. It now comes before the people for approval.

The form of the referendum requires a vote "YES" if permission to put money on interest monthly is to be granted.

The NORTH MIDDLESEX SAVINGS BANK is ready to adopt this method as soon as it can be done.

It is for the interest of depositors, therefore, that the law should be approved.

We urge you to vote "YES" and to advise your friends to do so.

News Items.

C. F. Stacey and wife recently moved from the Bay Cottage on River street into the Shattuck house, opposite the stable of E. S. Durant, on Townsend street.

Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of the estate of the late Pierce Bros., of Hollis, N. H., by M. H. Sullivan, of this town, although the death of the sister, Mrs. Abbie Gale, one of the heirs, may delay the deal.

The annual meeting of the Village Aid society will be held with Mrs. John L. Boynton, Main street, Friday, November 7, at three o'clock. Yearly dues will be payable at this time.

Grange Notes.

At the meeting of Prescott Grange on last week Friday evening the third and fourth degrees were conferred on the class of entering members, seven in number. The third degree was worked by the ladies' degree team, newly organized, with Miss Florence Flynn, master; Miss Ellen Miller, chap.; Mrs. Carrie Stewart, o.; Miss Muriel Robinson, l. a. s.; Mrs. Minnie G. Green, asst. stew.; Miss Adeline Butcher, Pomona; Mrs. Jennie McDonald, Ceres; Miss Edith Dow, Flora; Miss Jessie Flynn, lect.; Miss Mollie Frazer, g. k.; Mrs. Millicent M. Richards, sec.; Miss Sara Hubbard, treas.; Mrs. Amy Shattuck, stew. The work was finely performed, and the floor work was especially praised, the costumes of the ladies, with their regalia, lending an added feature to the pleasure of the audience.

Among the out of town guests noted were Mr. and Mrs. Galen Proctor with friends, from Townsend, and Mrs. Minnie Knight and friends.

A fine harvest supper was served at the conclusion in the lower hall, under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Perry. The tables were artistically decorated with bittersweet berries and pine, and the menu consisted of baked beans with relishes, sliced ham, pie, fine fancy cakes and fruit, fine in quality and abundant in quantity, and winning universal praise.

At the next meeting, November 14, the program during the lecturer's hour will be in charge of the overseer, Mrs. Jennie McDonald.

Among the members of Prescott Grange attending the meeting of Groton Grange on Tuesday evening were Mrs. P. J. McDonald, Miss Kate Forniss, Mrs. Frank Smith, Leslie Jay and the two Messrs. Smith; also, Mrs. L. E. Starr, a member of Groton Grange, who was speaker of the evening. Mrs. Starr's subject was "The south and race conditions," and from her close acquaintance with, and observation of the same, she was able to relate many interesting facts. Her talk was a straightforward statement of some of the things which had been brought to her notice during her many seasons passed in Florida, and she handled her subject fearlessly, "without gloves," giving many facts not generally known here in the north. Mrs. Starr also related incidents connected with her life in the south, and particularly of a trip across Florida, which was made more interesting by over 100 postcards, illustrating many of the places visited. She also exhibited a rare specimen of the "butcherly rattler" skin, which was killed by a woman in Florida.

ORGANIZED GOVERNMENT

The Only Means of Protecting the Rights of All the People Is to

RE-ELECT GOVERNOR CALVIN COOLIDGE

"The Pilot Who Weathered the Storm"

The question at issue now is not one of party politics. It is not a matter that can be left to committees or organizations. It can only be met by a swift acceptance of personal responsibility and the maximum of individual effort.

The opposing candidate is vilifying the Governor by false and reckless accusations. He is trying to win votes by all sorts of promises. He is making political capital, or trying to, out of the faithfulness of the Boston police force and the looting and rioting that followed its defection.

This is no time for any mincing of words or disguising of issues. The question for the individual voter is not: How do I feel about the importance of defending the government and the public peace? but, What am I going to do about it?

Never was a cause more clearly expressed in a single personality than the cause of good government and righteous laws is expressed in the candidacy of Calvin Coolidge for re-election as Governor of Massachusetts.

THE RED CROSS PROGRAM FOR PEACE SERVICE

The thousands of Red Cross workers of New England who helped accomplish the vast war work of the American Red Cross in this country and overseas have been waiting eagerly since the armistice to learn what tasks lie ahead, what there will be for them to do in the Red Cross program for peace.

Rests With The People. The activities now authorized and those about to be undertaken do not complete the program of Red Cross service which will always adjust and readjust to changing needs.

War-time developments have given every community in the United States a recognized and organized center of Red Cross activity through which the people of that community may, if they wish, serve themselves, with all the advantages of national leadership, national standards national and international contracts.

Unfinished War Work. During the war the energies of the Red Cross were concentrated on extending aid and comfort to military and naval forces and relief to civilian populations.

Traditional Responsibilities. The Red Cross must continue to carry on in an even more effective way than in the past the already established system of National and International relief in mitigating the sufferings caused by famine, fire, floods and great national calamities.

Increased Responsibilities. The war has left America with the realization that higher standards of responsibility to prevent needless suffering and loss of life are set both for individuals and the nation.

All He Knew About His Meal. Having finished his meal the diner called for his check. "Let's see," said the waiter, "what did you have?" "Can't tell for the life of me," was the reply; "but what I ordered was minced chicken."—Boston Transcript.

As Usual. "Will you have another cup of coffee?" the landlady asked the boarder. He shook his head. "The spirit is willing, but the coffee is weak."

Activities Already Authorized. The Red Cross has already begun the work of meeting these responsibilities and Chapters are now engaged in extending the following activities: (a) Public Health Nursing.

Public Health Work. The Red Cross recognizes that the maintenance of public health is a public function to be operated by governmental bodies. It also recognizes that government today—local, state and national—is not everywhere prepared to meet these problems.

Health Centers. In preparing for Public Health work the Red Cross has believed that it should announce a plan under which a community might organize in the fullest way.

Preservation of Volunteer Spirit. During the war the great volume of work was done by volunteer workers directly in Chapter workrooms, in the home, in auxiliary groups, and in contests and motor corps units.

Alaskan Coast Forests. The coast forests of southern and southeastern Alaska are included in the national forests of Tongass and Chugach, which comprise over 96,000 acres.

As Usual. "Will you have another cup of coffee?" the landlady asked the boarder. He shook his head. "The spirit is willing, but the coffee is weak."
