Church Notes.
 At a business meeting of the church on November 30, complying with the request of the Home Missionary society, it was voted to hold the every-member canvass drive. A committee was appointed to take charge of the matter. When the whole town is canvassed some Sunday afternoon to meet the church expenses for 1920, it is hoped that the response will be very generous. Let us rally to the support of the one church in town. Can we not cease to be dependent upon the Home Missionary society for $300 annually?
 Last Sunday morning a missionary meeting in charge of a committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held in the vestry. The leader was Mrs. Charles N. Burrows, topic, "The Shaffner Missionary Training School."
 A table of missionary literature has been started that the members may learn more of the work at home and abroad.
 On Wednesday afternoon, December 10, at 2.30, Mrs. C. H. Richardson will entertain the Woman's Auxiliary. Mrs. George Richardson has charge of the program; topic, "China."
 Rev. Charles N. Burrows has invited all the boys from eight to eighteen years, to meet at the parsonage on Saturday evening.

 One deer fell a victim of the hunters art on Monday. Louis Savage and Ralph Emerson were out just forty minutes and secured a fine specimen. This is the only one that has been reported so far.
 Mrs. Arthur de Lord left this Friday for New York city, where she will spend the winter. Mr. de Lord is engaged in his theatrical work in that city.
 Our station agent, James Rutledge, with Mrs. Rutledge, have moved into the upper tenement with Edward J. McLaughlin.
 Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Fletcher of Groton spent last Sunday in town guests of their sister, Mrs. A. T. West.

Death.

George E. Pringle, owner of the Pastime theatre and a resident of Mansfield, seventy years, died at his home November 25. Mr. Pringle had been in ill-health for the past year. While preparing to retire he was stricken with heart trouble. He was born in Mansfield, Mich., sixty years ago. Coming from the west, he located in Mansfield. He conducted a large farm on the Foxboro road and was the owner of the movie house there. He was married a year ago.
 It will be remembered that Mr. Pringle and Mr. Van Jenson both were nephews of the late Henry L. Warner, to whom the town is indebted for the Warner free lecture course and the beautiful site of the Bellevue cemetery, resided for a few years in West Fare hill in the old Warner house. They were the sponsors in this vicinity. Mr. Van Jenson was a talented musician and interpreted the pictures as Mr. Pringle threw them on the screen. They continued to work together after leaving town until the death of Mr. Van Jenson last February in Mansfield.
 Mr. Pringle leaves a widow to whom he has been married less than a year. Benjamin J. Priest and family kept touch with these, their neighbors, during the past years and Mr. and Mrs. Priest attended the funeral, which was held last week Friday.

Still River.

We omitted among the home-comers at Thanksgiving Miss Marjorie Walker, of Worcester, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Walker, and Warren K. Harrod, of Worcester with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harrod, and Mrs. Adella Turner. They were the sponsors in this vicinity with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Turner in Harvard.
 Mrs. Whitney, of Worcester, came Tuesday for a few days, stopping with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stone.
 Mrs. Emma Atherton is the guest of her brother, John R. Bigelow.
 Rev. William Gussman, pastor of the Baptist church, attended a meeting of Baptist ministers in Fitchburg on Monday.
 Mrs. Haynes visited, Mrs. John Sprague, Shirley, Thursday.
