RELIABLE CLOTHIER AYER

This is a refreshing contrast to the action of the Republicans during the last years of Wilson administration. As any measure approved by Mr. Wilson was promptly and vigorously opposed whether it was good, bad or different Massachusetts' veteran native son seemed to delight in throwing "a monkey wrench in the works" merely for the pleasure of hearing the smash. Can it be that the Democratic party has changed its tactics, reformed or had a rush of common sense to the head?

Whatever the cause it is refreshing to read articles and editorials in Democratic newspapers giving credit to Republican officials for worthy efforts to honestly perform the duties pertaining to their respective offices and even being so fair as to give them an extension of time in which to make good the campaign promises of economy tax reform etc.

is the millennium really approaching when the tiger and the elephant shall lie down together or are they merely springing ammunition for the next campaign? We wonder which! V. T. E.

WESTFORD

Center. Mrs. Helen M. Bartlett enjoyed a visit from her youngest son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bartlett, of Wakefield, Mass. Bartlett and Mr. Whitney returned with them to spend the week-end.

Mrs. Dorothy B. Roach, the teacher at Parkerville, was the recipient of several attractive gifts, among them a salad set and cut glass bowl from the parents of her pupils, in token of appreciation for her faithful work.

Mrs. Alice V. Wells, with her three children, went by auto to Bakersfield, Vt. where the children are to spend the summer with relatives. Mr. Wells returned home, having covered 400 miles. Mrs. Wells was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hanson.

Miss May E. Day has been attending the meetings of the American Library association in Swampscott this week. Mrs. Day's sister is substituting during her absence.

Graduation Exercises. Once again a large class of boys and girls has graduated from Westford academy. An audience consisting of many relatives and friends listened with pleasure to the exercises which were held at the town hall on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. The class colors of blue and gold were used in decorating the room.

The trustees of the academy opened the program with a march and overture while the pupils marched to their places. Rev. W. L. Browney made the invocation, after which Francis H. Daley gave the salutatory. The class history was given by Miss Marjorie E. Daley, class clerk. Miss Lillian M. Hunt read the last will and testament of the class. A cantata, "The Vigilant Watchman," was given by the school. Conrad E. J. Cote, a member of last year's class, was the soloist in the presentation of the class gift was made by Miss Ruth Johnson and accepted by Miss Helen M. Kimball of the class of 1922. The gift consisted of a clock much needed in one of the rooms. Following this was the class prophecy by Chester Lapinski.

Principal William C. Roudenbush was the speaker of the morning, talking for his subject, "His new day." His words were listened to with attention and appreciation. A valedictory was given by Stanley J. Smith. Supt. H. C. Knight presented the prizes and diplomas.

The graduates in the academic course were Marjorie E. Hall, Francis H. Daley, Harold A. Harrington, Henry D. Harrington, G. Gladys Simpson, Chester Lapinski and Stanley J. Smith; in the English-business course, Carl O. Anderson, Mabel G. Zane, Mary E. Gagnon, Alice E. Fletcher, Lillian M. Hunt, Alice E. Johnson, Ruth Johnson, Marjorie Pollock and Gladys Simpson.

The following members of the class were elected to the Pro Merito society of secondary schools: Marjorie E. Bell, Francis H. Daley, Lillian M. Hunt, Chester Lapinski and Stanley J. Smith.

The winners of the prizes given by the academy trustees, highest percentage of improvement in scholarship (second, third and fourth year students) over the year 1920: Florence Caunter, $10.00; Mabel G. Gladys Simpson, $10.00; Dane 21, 2d, $5.00; Alice Walsh 22, 3d, $5.00; Lawrence Ingalls 22, honorable mention; highest average rank for first year students, Dorothy Anderson 24, Frank Jarvis 24, honorable mention. The class motto is "Service," and the class flower is the lily-of-the-valley.

The alumni luncheon and reception to the graduates followed the graduation exercises. In the evening the graduation ball at eight o'clock was well attended and enjoyed by all.

About Town. The Lowell Choral society will hold their second annual outing at the summer camps of Mrs. George F. Scribner and Mrs. Osborne at Lake Nabnasset on Thursday, June 30.

The Sunday school of St. Francis' church, Lowell, were given a day of pleasure and sport last Saturday at Lake Nabnasset, going by special cars on the Lowell and Boston electric road to Whidden's Corner.

A passing engine and caboose on the Stony Brook road discovered fire that threatened the grass and woodland of Danvers. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The fire was extinguished before it had made any headway towards sweeping the large wooded area towards Lake Nabnasset. The dry high wind and dry grass and underbrush were favorable for some business.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Cushing, who have been visiting a few weeks with their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Farrar, are now at their summer home in Framingham.

Plans are being discussed by the school committee and others for two new school buildings, one at the Forge Village and one at Brookside. The town is now paying $8000 a year for transportation; of this sum, if we are correctly informed, $22 a day is from Brookside, which is a growing manufacturing village, is entitled to modern school accommodations, besides three miles is a long, cold journey in the short cold days of winter. A modern school building will add to the thrifty appearance of the village.

Late last Saturday afternoon we had a shower of the cloud opening pour down type. It threw out more moisture in five minutes than had been accumulated in two weeks. It lasted about half an hour, coming by the way of Brookside and moving southwest and seeming to cover in all outdoors in this vicinity, but residents at Westford depot, one mile west, said that the rain reigneth not there.

A large deer was seen browsing in the pasture of the Chamberlain farm on the easterly slope of Little Tadmark hill last Saturday.

Hon. Herbert E. Fletcher and sons of Oak Hill have the contract for building the new bridge over the Merrimack river at the town of Merrimack, N. H. Mr. Farrar, who lives on the bridge road, will superintend the construction.

Eric Hedman has sold his place on the Chamberlain road, near Brookside Corner, to Axel Lundberg, of Brookside. Mr. Hedman has moved to North Chelmsford.

We were pleased to meet our old genial friend and native, Hiram Dane, after a few years' residence at Long Beach, Cal. recently. He has lost none of his enthusiasm for service and still has the same buoyant spirit as in his more youthful days, although close to his eighty-second birthday. He mentioned going to church where

Rev. Oliver J. Fairfield, formerly of Littleton, is minister, and reports that his congregation has increased to the size of a contemplated new church.

The drouth having finished the strawberries that were not irrigated is now after the potatoes. As a sample of the effect of the drouth on strawberries, a vigorous lot on the "Fruit Farm" that promised to yield eighty crates yielded less than ten, and the vines dry enough to burn.

There will be a concert by the Abbot Worsted Company band on the summer Sunday afternoon from two to four o'clock.

The County Farm Bureau invites all those interested in poultry and auto poultry to participate in the auto poultry tour to be held on Wednesday, June 29, starting at Concord Junction, opposite the reformatory, at 10 o'clock. The first stop will be made at L. W. King's, where a captioning demonstration will be given. A prize luncheon will be enjoyed at W. M. E. Whitlock's, Marlboro, at approximately one o'clock. Several excellent poultry men have accepted invitations to give short talks directly after the luncheon. The party will break up in Hudson about four o'clock. Further details may be found in the June issue of the Middlesex County Bulletin.

Grantville.

In one of the best-played games of the season the Canton town team defeated the Abbot Worsted Co. club here on last Saturday by the score 3 to 0. The game was filled with good hitting and fast fielding from start to finish. Brilliant plays were pulled off on both sides. Olaf Hendrickson, the former Boston Red Sox star, played center field for Canton and poked out two three-baggers. The batteries were Tucker and Sullivan for Abbot, Williams and Carrigan for Abbot. Umpire, W. J. Engler. On next Saturday, June 25, the Abbots will play at home and will have for opponents the fast Newton Legion team of Newton. Harry Mulowney, the star left-hander of Boston college, and Switzer, the former Englewood high pitcher, will twirl for Newton. A former eastern leaguer will do the catching. The battery for Abbot will be Williams and Carrigan. Game called at three p. m.

Oliver Reeves, who is now stopping at Newburyport, where he is employed as timekeeper on the railroad, was given a pleasant surprise when he returned to his home here on last Saturday evening for a brief visit. Many of his local friends as well as friends from Lowell and North Andover, assembled at his home in honor of his eighteenth birthday. The time was pleasantly spent in dancing and playing games, and after refreshments had been served, all joined in singing the old songs and many of the new. A pleasing incident in connection with the affair was the presentation of a beautiful ring and fitting speech. This was a real surprise and the recipient expressed his thanks in a fine speech.

John Trask is spending a few days with relatives in Boston.

Both masses in St. Catherine's church Sunday morning were celebrated. Mrs. Frank Shugrue, with her two little daughters, Frances and Pauline, returned from a very delightful visit spent with relatives in Center Harbor, N. H.

Miss Cecelia Wall is now spending a few days with relatives in Lowell.

HARVARD

News Items. On Thursday afternoon, June 30, the King's Daughters will hold a sale on the lawn of the Congregational church. There will be ice cream, food, useful and fancy articles; also a rummage table. As the object of the circle is to help all who are in need, it is hoped that all who can will help the circle on this occasion. The sale will begin at three o'clock.

This Saturday the Harvard A. A. will hold a K. of C. ball on the Bronfield grounds at three o'clock. A close game is looked for.

At the Unitarian church on Sunday morning Rev. George Kent, the minister, will preach the sermon. H. A. Thayer will sing, assisted by Wilfred Parkinson, violinist.

Rev. A. W. Dwyer will preach at the white church on Sunday, and a mixed quartet will sing. Preparations for a centennial day the last of July are well under way. In the hands of an efficient committee.

Edward F. Taylor, one of our respected citizens, passed away at his home on Oak Hill, Monday, cerebral hemorrhage being the cause of his death. Mr. Taylor was fifty-six years old. Services were from the home on Thursday. Mr. Taylor was in business life the manager of the East Boston Company, but on his farm here in town, with his wife, he enjoyed the relaxation from the strain of work and proved himself to be a true citizen, friend and neighbor.

Ruth Bull, of Worcester, is spending her two-weeks' vacation with her aunt, Mrs. Hannah Whitney, here in town.

Prof. and Mrs. Hoffman are to occupy the Harlow house during July. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harlow, with the girls, Nancy and Miriam, are at the home here until July 3.

There will be a band concert and lawn party given by the Catholic mission on the common on Wednesday afternoon and evening, June 29. There will be a band, ice cream and tonic and the usual attractions. Sale opens at three o'clock. Band concert from seven to nine by the President Suspendor band of Shirley. A social dance will be held in the town hall from nine until twelve, music, President Suspendor orchestra.

Sister Myra McLean, late of the Harvard Shakers, was a guest last week with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. West.

Mr. Harrington, of the Worcester County Farm Bureau, was in town on Wednesday, meeting the boys and girls at the Memorial rooms. Mr. Harrington will personally supervise the boys' clubs. A canning club has also been organized and will have their first meeting next week. Mrs. Lucy A. West will have charge of this branch of the work.

At the last meeting of the Grange it was voted to leave with the master the arrangement for a place of meeting during July and August.

On and after July 1 Miss Nagle and Miss Graham of Ayer will close their hat shops every evening but Saturday, until further notice.

The Harvard public library has lately acquired these books: Robin Linnet by E. F. Benson, The Passionate Pilgrim by Merwin Gray Dawn by E. White, The Wicked Marquis by Opheim, The One by the Foot, Deadhand Hard by Lucas Malet, five small juvenile books, and the history of the town of Carlisle by Sidney Kent. The story-brain Thursdays for children from six to thirteen years of age will continue through the summer. An attractive feature of early July will be the reading of "The Bluebird" by Arthur de Langis, who is spending a part of the summer in Harvard.

The L. O. O. F. observed Memorial day last Sunday. The members formed in a body and marched to the Unitarian church where a memorial sermon was preached by Rev. George Kent. Following the service they decorated the graves of the passed members of the order.

William Smith, a veteran of the Civil war, was in town last week calling on what old friends were left of his boyhood days. He lived with a young man with Warren Fairbank's father. He called on Alfred Willard, who remembered him before the Civil war.

Prizes for the Fourth of July sports are now on display at the store of Kerley, Reed & Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Turner of Frederickton, N. B., are home with their parents here for the summer vacation.

Forrest F. Lang spent last week-end here in town, the guest of Miss Esther Glidden.

At the Bronfield graduating exercises given last week, Miss George Kent, in behalf of Harvard students, presented Rev. Dr. Bayly, a venerable trustee of the school with a gold-headed cane suitably engraved. Dr. Bayly was ordained pastor of the church here sixty years ago.

Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Shattuck, New Cornerstone, Ohio, spent last week-end here in town visiting their many good friends here.

A representative of the farm bureau called in town last week and organized a girls' canning club. Mrs. Lucy A. West has been chosen as leader for the club and they hold their first meeting this week. Those wishing to join with this club can get desired information by calling Mrs. West, telephone 66.

Mrs. Clara Foss is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Carlson.

Ruth Bull spent Sunday in town with her aunt, H. Emma Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys visited over Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. G. Cobb, and family at Queenston. Dr. and Mrs. Kent Royal, with baby Betty, arrived at Dr. H. B. Joyal's for their annual month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elwell visited over the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Mary G. Hildreth.

Edw. McLaughlin has dressed up his house at the mill with a new coat of white paint.

Last Saturday, June 18, Miss Clara Endicott Sears entertained 102 members of the Boston Authors' club at luncheon at The Pergolas, after which they all visited the Shaker House, which Miss Sears has moved from the Harvard Shaker village to the Fruitlands Hill, and they also visited the house of Prichard. The club members came over the road from Boston in Colonial sight-seeing motor vans and returned after a day of great interest and pleasure. Miss Sears took photographs of the party grouped in front of the Shaker house as a record of this notable gathering.

On Saturday at town hall Jessie L. Hampton presented "Blanche Sweet," the "dead-end six" by Bayard Rustin, author of "The Chariot," and within the law." Can a woman raise a headstrong man and then be an obedient wife? The story of the independence of being a successful business woman of big affairs can she win the love of a man? The weaker sex be for stronger sex? If any of the questions puzzle you the answer can be found by seeing Blanche Sweet at the town hall, June 25, when she will illustrate these. Coming July 2, George B. Seitz serial, "Velvet Vagabonds."

A Floor Varnish That Stands Rough and Scuff

Lowe's Durable is one of the few floor varnishes made especially for floors—one of the few that fully fulfills its purpose.

It is heavy in body, covers thoroughly and gives complete protection to the floor. Dries hard, but will not crack even though the wood is dented. And it is easy to apply—does not drag on the brush.

Durable Floor Varnish does not have that cheap "shiny" look, but gives a deep, rich gloss effect. It is tough and elastic enough to stand wear and tear. It does not mar white.

Water—boiling hot or freezing cold—does not affect it. It is a varnish we recommend for your floors. It is made just for that purpose.

BASEBALL GAME

An interesting and at times exciting ball game was played at the Country club grounds last Monday evening between teams of "has been" and "would be" ball players.

The all-timers came with a rush and scored three runs in the first inning, the lead alternating, until in the ninth, the score was tied, and eventually the "would be" players won the winning run, the final score being 12 to 11 in eleven innings. Some good fielding plays were made, mostly by the "would be" players, who were acting the way fast enough and had to stop the ball. The "has been" centerfielder thinking the ground too rough, proceeded to stomp the ball, and the "would be" players were very displeased.

The native popularity of the players prevents us printing the line-up or mentioning names of the "star" players. Come and see for yourself next Monday at 7.30 o'clock, when the game will be played. No tie league must be admitted to the grounds.

CONGREGATIONAL NOTES

Rev. G. H. Cleland will be out of town on Sunday. His absenting his friend and fellow student at Boston university, Rev. John Long, will occupy the pulpit.

There will be special music by the young people's chorus, and the minister will preach a sermon appropriate to the day. Children will be christened and dedicated to God and the christian life at the morning service.

The church school has elected Miss Hazel Bradley and Nahum Whitcomb as delegates to the Unitarian Laymen's Institute for Religious Education to be held at Star Island, near Milton, on the 27th and 28th of July, H. July 23 to August 6. An unusually fine program has been prepared.

The delegates from this church to the 110th session of the North Middlesex conference in Wilton, N. H., were Mrs. E. A. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hartwell, Rev. Carl G. Horst, Mrs. Emma Preston, Mr. Newton, and Mrs. Turner.

The general conference of Unitarian churches meets in Detroit, October 4-7.

YOUR PAINTER KNOWS PAINTING

If you are planning on painting your home, consult a painter as to materials and color. His years in the painting business have qualified him to judge as to what is best suited for design and wear. If you act on his judgment, you will be sure of a good job—a job that will look and wear as the painter who planned it knows it will.
